

Rocky Mountain News

URL: http://www.rockymountainnews.com/drmn/local/article/0,1299,DRMN_15_2369378,00.html

About the Morrison Nature Center

October 22, 2003

- Grand opening: 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Sunday
- Surrounding land: 200 acres of century-old cottonwood trees, willows, native grasses and a wetland preserve.
- Animals you'll see: Wild deer, foxes, coyotes, rabbits and a multitude of waterfowl and other bird species.
- Access to trails: The 14-mile Sand Creek Greenway Trail connects the High Line Canal Trail in Aurora to the Platte River Trail in Commerce City.
- For more information: Call 303-393-7700 or visit the Web site at www.sandcreekgreenway.org.

Copyright 2003, Rocky Mountain News. All Rights Reserved.